

Università degli Studi della Basilicata
Scuola di Ingegneria

PROF. ING. MAURO DE LUCA PICIONE

SCIENTIFIC CURRICULUM VITAE:

Mauro De Luca Picione has graduated in building engineering to the university of the studies of the Basilicata in 1997, PHD to the Polytechnic of Bari in 2006, he has been researcher to determined time from the October 2007 to the September 2008 in to the dipartiment of architetture in the sector ICAR 11. Professor to contract to the school of engineering of the university of the studies of the Basilicata in the field of the Building Construction Management . He has as theme of search the management of the executive phase of the building site and the application of computer technologies to the activity of control and management of the building sites. The study of methods and safety tools on the job. He is author and co-author more of 20 articles in actions of congresses and in character publications national and international and of the volume The Dynamic Project of the Building Yard I edit from the Sole24ore. He teaches BIM methodology in training and specialization courses.

PROFESSOR'S OFFICE HOUR:

WEDNESDAY 12:00 14:00, e a seguire l'orario delle lezioni Campus Macchia Romana, Scuola di ingegneria (IV piano edificio ingegneria)

E-MAIL: m.delucapicione@gmail.com

WEBSITE:

TELEPHONE:338 9845312

