

PROF. Marco Carpentieri

CURRICULUM SCIENTIFICO

Marco Carpentieri was born in Salerno (Italy) in 1966. He received the "Laurea" degree, cum laude, in computer science at the University of Salerno, Italy, and the PhD degree in computer science at the Milan University, Italy. He was grant-holder at the Applied Computer Science Department of the University of Salerno, at the Institute on Parallel Computer Science Systems of Naples, at the Information Engineering and Applied Mathematics Department of the University of Salerno. He was Operating Systems and Formal Languages and Compiler contract teacher at the Computer Science department of the Basilicata University (Pz). Actually, he's researcher at the Basilicata University and Theoretical Computer Science and Architecture teacher. His research interests include topics regarding cryptography, genetic algorithms, combinatorics and optimization, quantum computing, linear stability of dynamical systems and pseudo random sequences.